SHERIFF EDWARD N. BONNER RELEASES THE FOLLOWING:

After reviewing hours of surveillance tape from Thunder Valley Casino, Placer County detectives have been able to identify a man who was seen walking out of the casino with Christie Wilson. The 53 year-old male is considered a person of interest at this time and detectives have interviewed him.

Christie Wilson

Her boyfriend, Daniel Burlando, last saw Christie Wilson, 27, of Sacramento, 30, also of Sacramento, on Tuesday, October 4 at 5 PM when he left to go to his father's house for dinner. Wilson left a phone message with Burlando stating she was going to the casino. Burlando found Wilson's car parked in the casino parking lot on Thursday, October 6. When he could not find Wilson in the casino he contacted the Sacramento Police Department and reported Wilson as a missing person.

Placer County Sheriff's detectives and detectives from Sacramento P.D. are working jointly on this case

Wilson is described as a White female, 5'4", 150 pounds with brown hair and eyes. Anyone with information on Wilson's whereabouts is urged to contact Placer County Sheriff's Department at 530-889-7867.
